

FTSE 100 Falls on Tuesday

NEGATIVE NEWS

United Kingdom

Stock Market

The FTSE 100 fell 0.3% on Tuesday after two sessions of gains, underperforming European peers as disappointing earnings from heavyweight banks and energy companies weighed on the index. BP dropped more than 6% after reporting weaker than expected 2025 net profit of $7.49 billion and announcing it would suspend share buybacks to strengthen its balance sheet. Barclays fell around 2.5% after results also disappointed, while Standard Chartered slid nearly 6% following the exit of its CFO. These declines offset gains in AstraZeneca, which rose about 2.5% after a positive profit outlook. Meanwhile, markets continued to monitor pressure on Prime Minister Keir Starmer to step down after policy reversals and controversy over the appointment of Peter Mandelson as US ambassador.

Senegal Inflation Rate at 8-Month Low

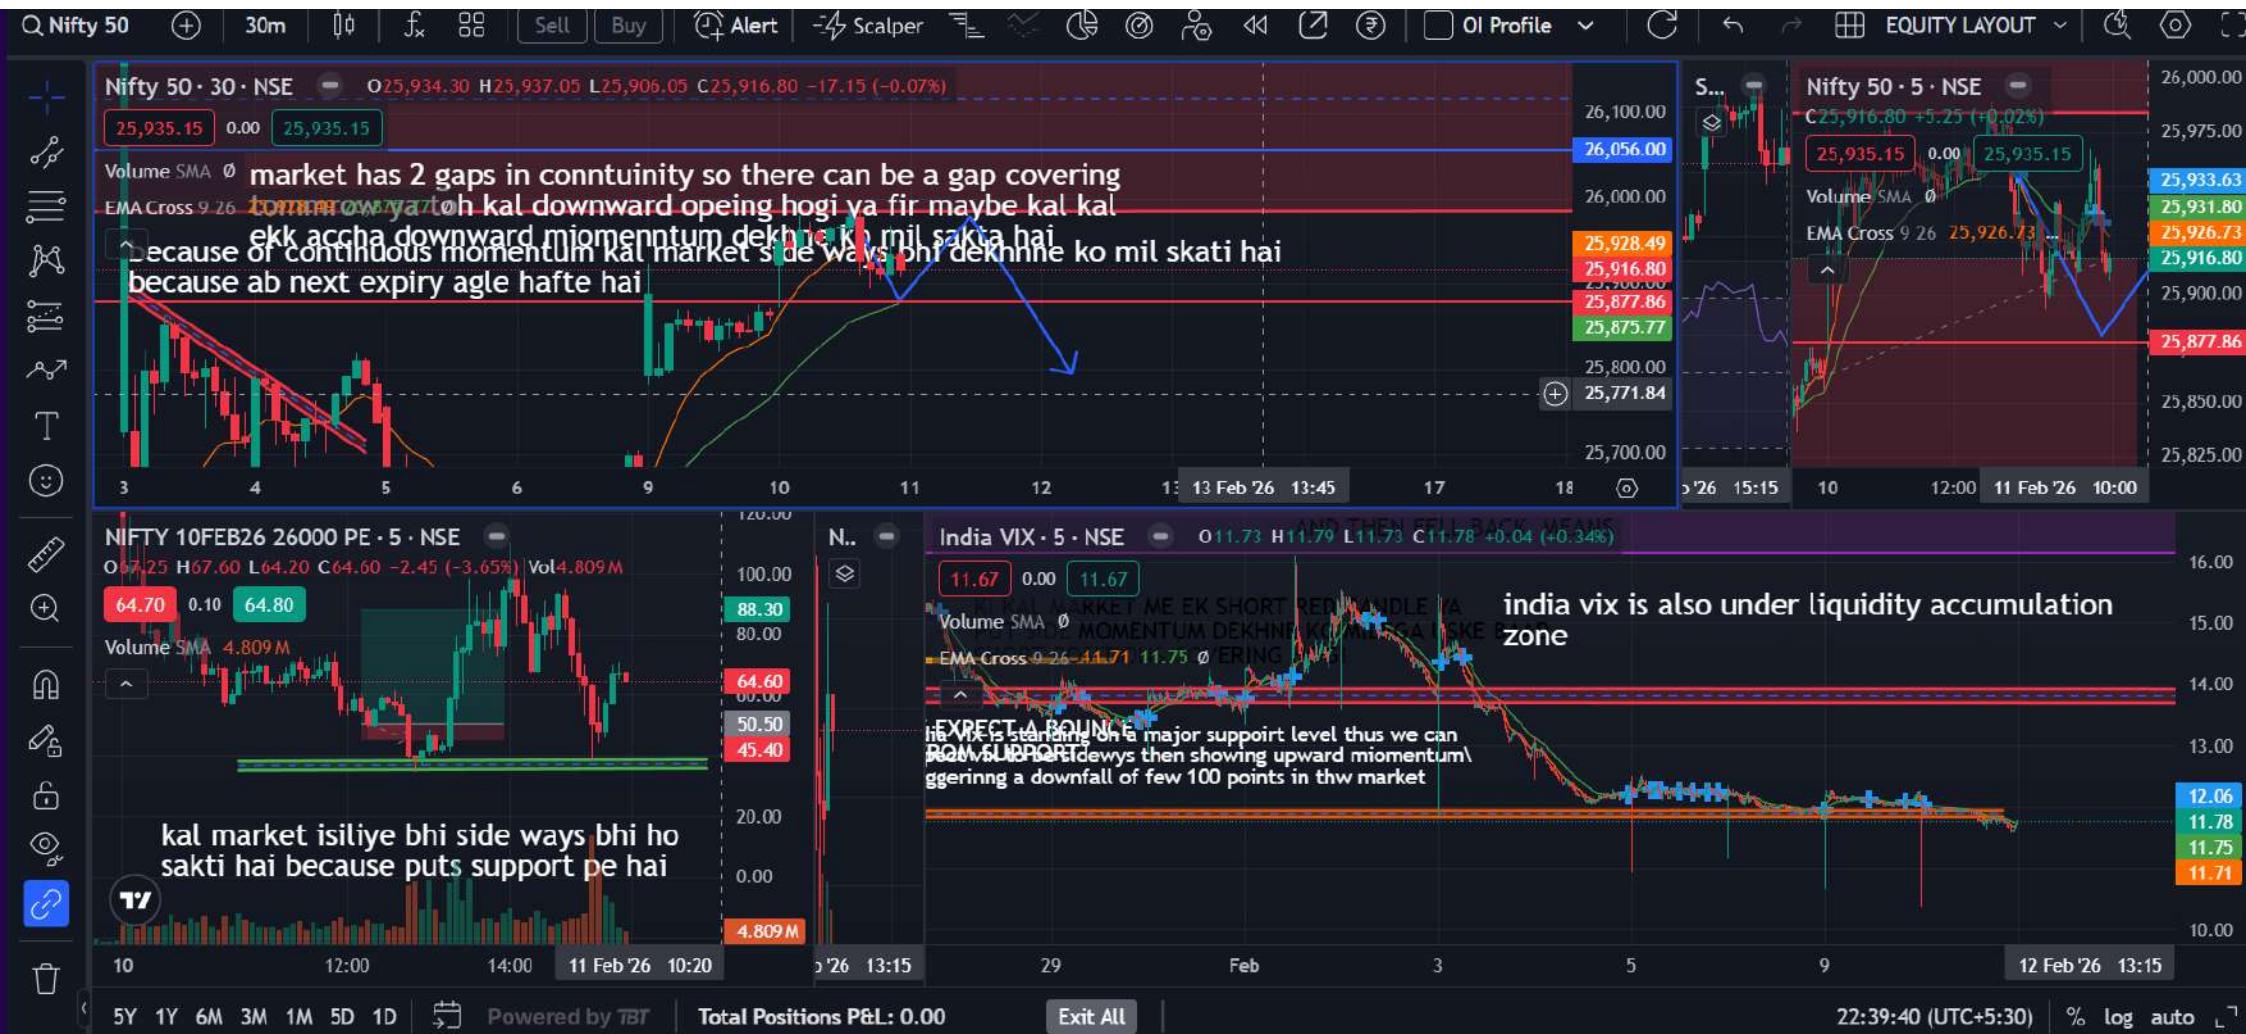

Senegal

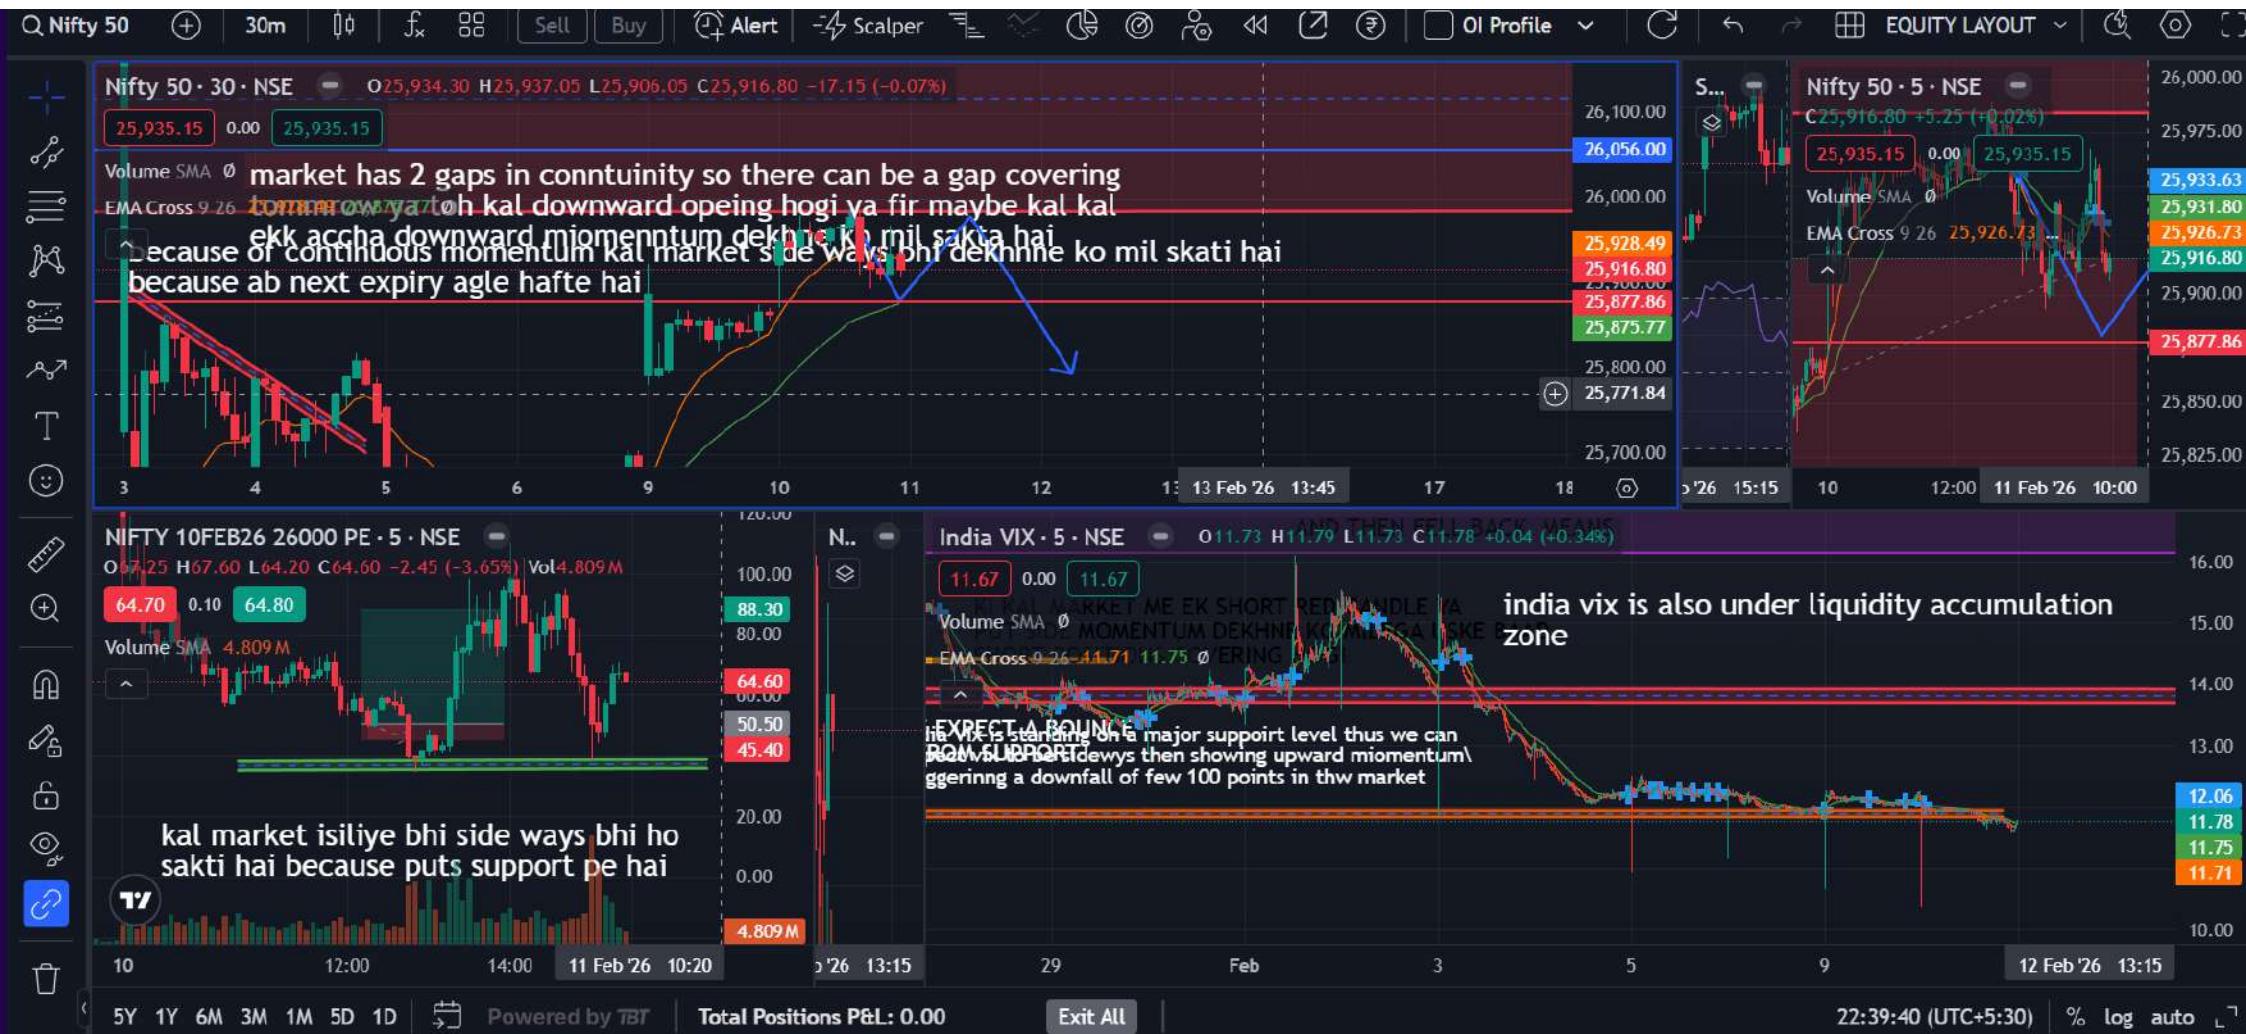

Inflation Rate

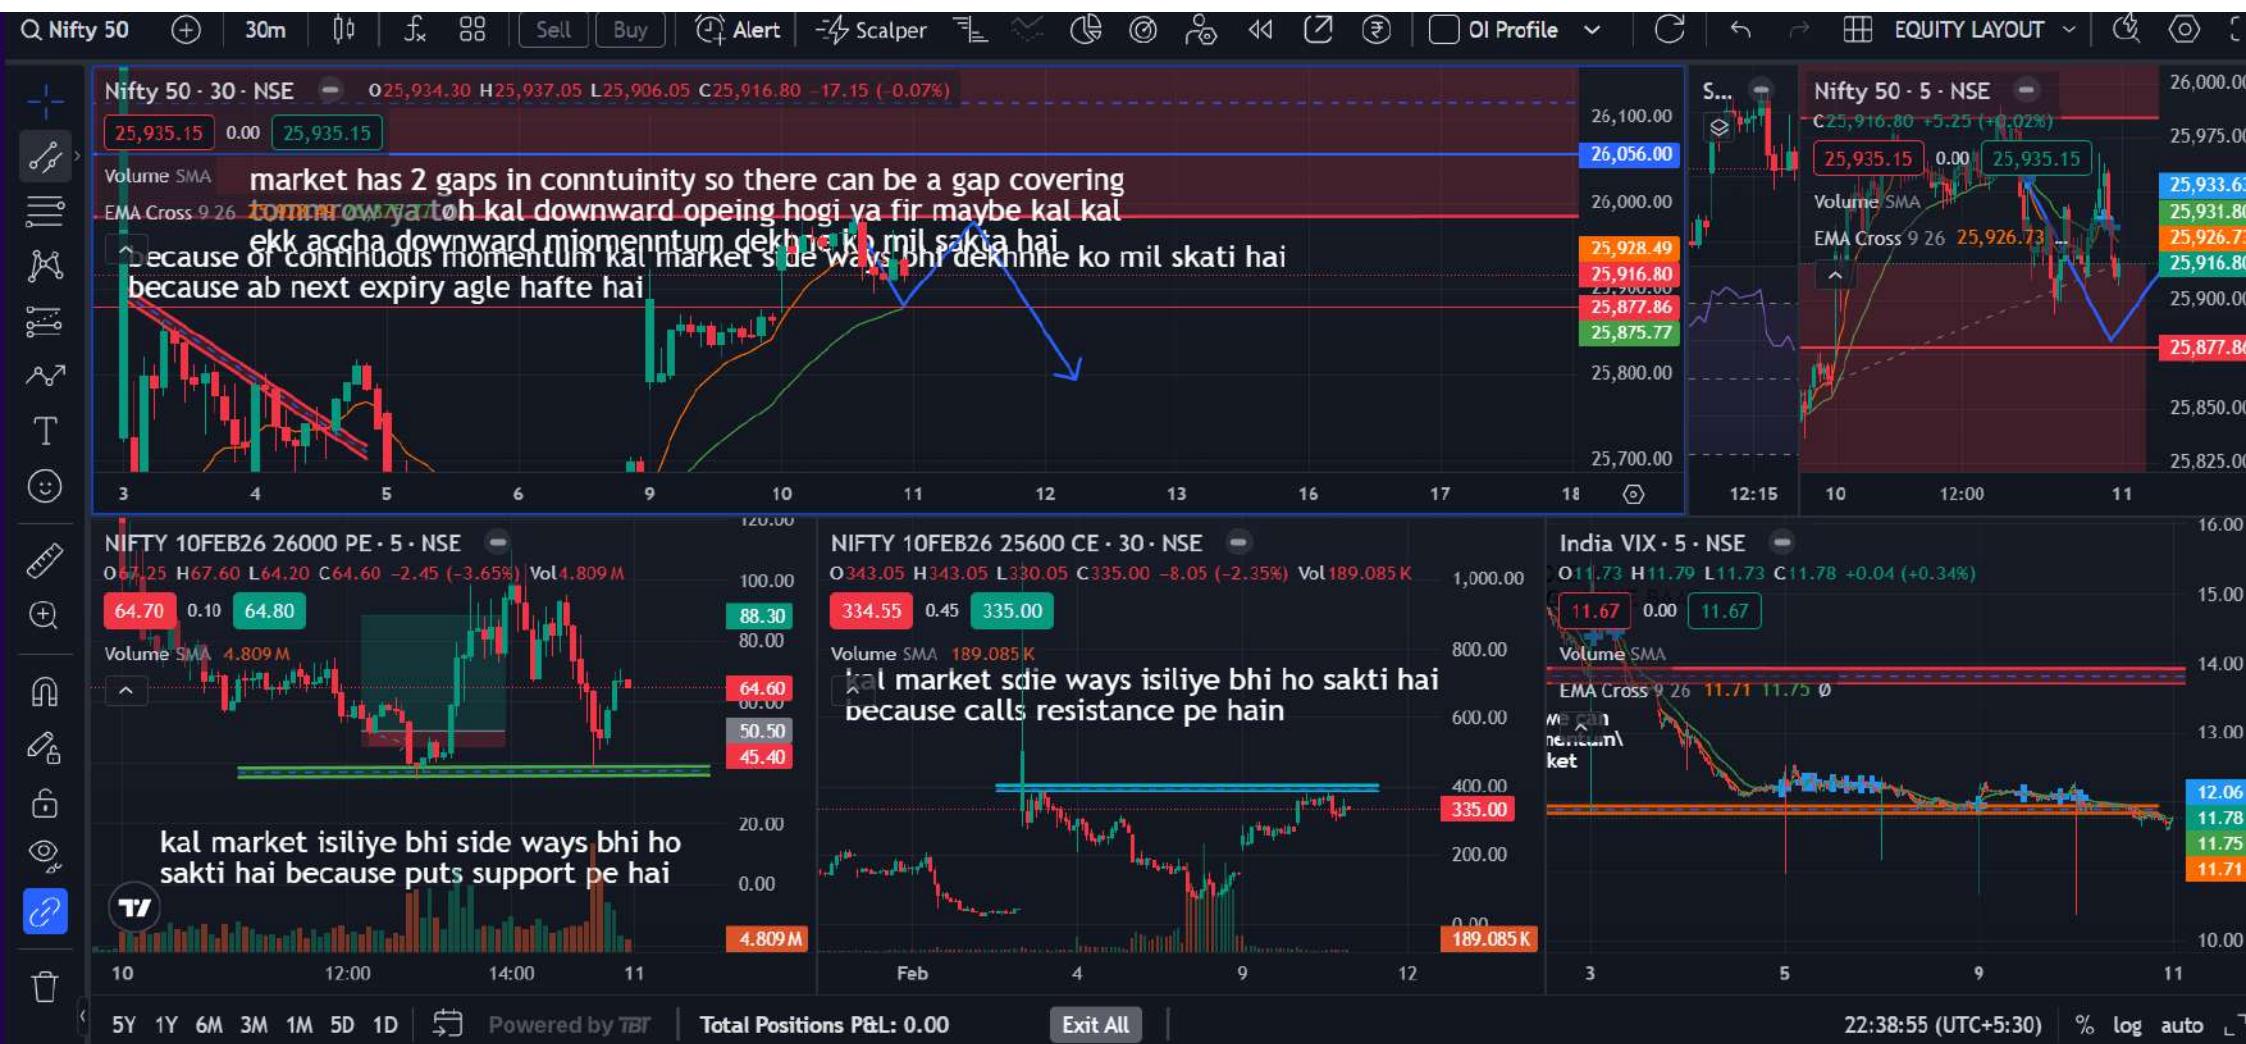

Senegal's annual inflation rate fell sharply to 0.4% in January 2026, marking the lowest reading in eight months and down from 2.8% in the previous month. The slowdown was largely driven by a decline in food and non-alcoholic beverage prices, which fell by 0.5% after rising 4.5% previously. Price pressures also eased across most other categories, including housing and utilities (0.4% vs. 1.2%), transport (0.7% vs. 1.4%), furnishings (1.9% vs. 2.5%), restaurants and hotels (2.1% vs. 3.0%), alcoholic beverages and tobacco (13.4% vs. 17.2%), health (1.3% vs. 1.5%), and recreation and culture (1.0% vs. 1.6%).

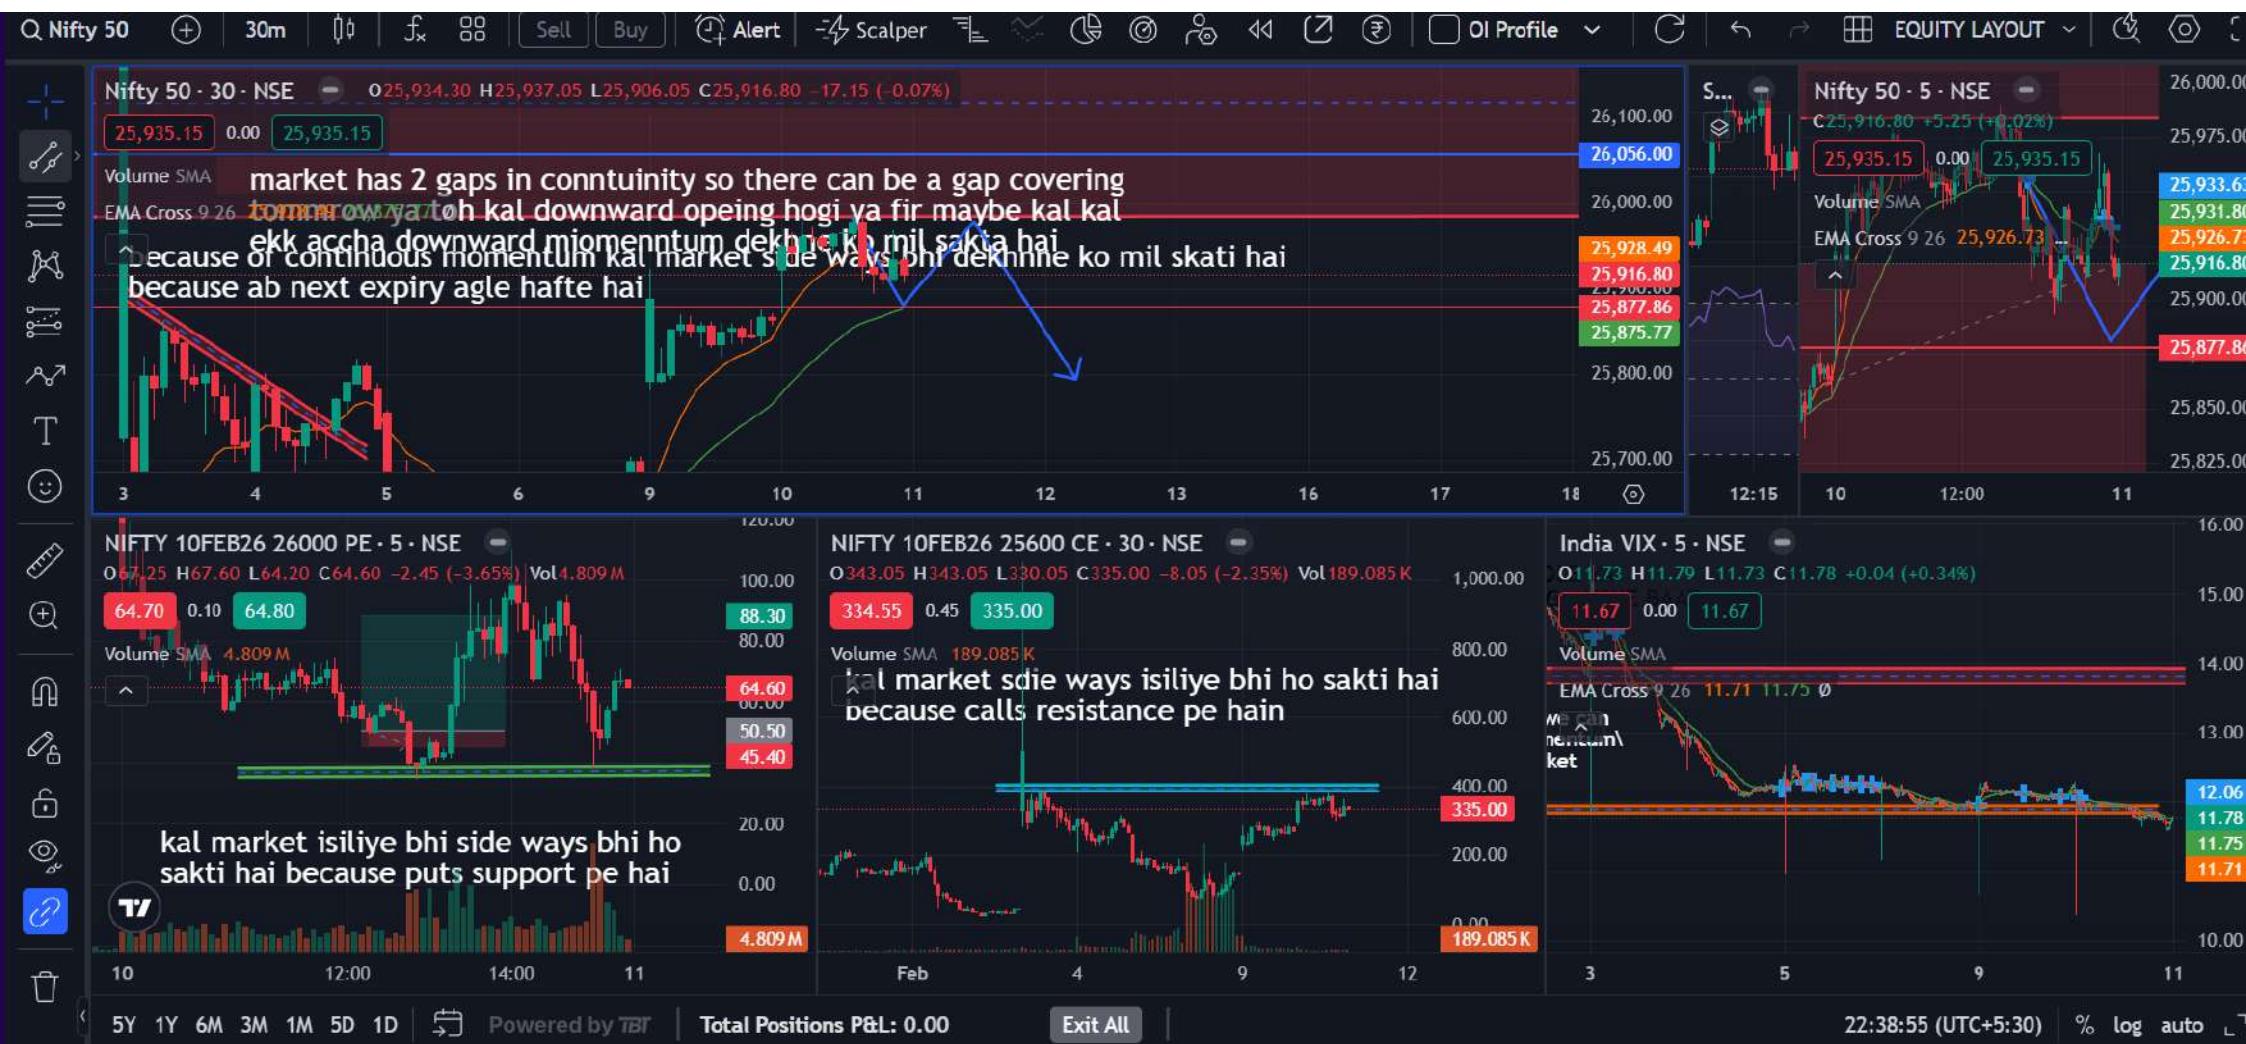

Meanwhile, inflation in clothing and footwear stood at 0.6%, while education price growth picked up to 1.0% from 0%. Deflation in the communication sector also eased, with prices falling by 0.7% compared with a 1.7% decline in the previous month. On a monthly basis, consumer prices continued to fall for a third consecutive month, declining by 1.3%.

US Household Debt Hits Fresh Record

United States

Debt Balance Total

Total household debt in the US increased by $191 billion from the prior quarter to a new record high of $18.8 trillion in Q4 2025. Mortgage balances grew by $98 billion to $13.17 trillion, and credit card balances rose by $44 billion to $1.28 trillion. Auto loan balances increased by $12 billion to $1.67 trillion. Home equity line of credit (HELOC) balances increased by $11.6 billion to $434 billion while student loan balances rose by $11 billion to $1.66 trillion. "As household debt levels grow modestly, mortgage delinquencies continue to increase," said Wilbert van der Klaauw, Economic Research Advisor at the New York Fed. "Delinquency rates for mortgages are near historically normal levels, but the deterioration is concentrated in lower-income areas and in areas with declining home prices."
